Other important information

Tudor Grange has introduced Sunday car parking charges. Athletes should park in the main car park and parking is free for the first three hours, but a £4.00 charge is payable for additional hours. Officials will be able to claim a refund of the charge on their travel expenses form.

Refreshments and toilet facilities for officials are now available in refurbished rooms near the track. These refreshments are only for officials with a refreshments voucher. Athletes should use the changing and toilet facilities and café in the main building, as last year.
